Call for applications 2024 for a Master2 scholarship

PEPR eSEMBLE is opening a call for applications for grants for the final Master internship, of 5 months. This call targets the research axes and sub-axes of PC1, PC3 and PC4. PEPR eSEMBLE aims at financing between 3 and 5 grants per participating PC.

The complete application must be sent to the targeted PC (pc1@pepr-ensemble.fr, pc3@pepr-ensemble.fr, pc4@pepr-ensemble.fr, etc.) and must contain:

- Candidate's CV + transcript of records
- Internship subject
- Letter from the supervisor describing the adequacy between the candidate and topic, and relevance for the PC to which the demand is made
- Laboratory where the the internship will take place

Calendar:

- Deadline for submission: January 19
- Notification of results: January 26
- Beginning of internship: February or later, according to the master's calendar

These scholarships are subject to approval by the FSD (Fonctionnaire Sécurité Défense).

The laboratory which will be receiving the grant funds must be a member of an institution that is a partner of the PC to which the demand is made (see list here; PC1, PC3, PC4).

The internship report should be shared with the relevant PC members at the end of the internship.
